FROM CBM PRAYERline:

“All over Canada, urban Baptist churches are partnering with rural churches and farmers to support growing projects, through our partnership with the Canadian Foodgrains Bank. These partnerships allow urban churches to support farming projects in rural areas, which will donate all the profits of crops harvested off of donated land, seeds, fertilizer, etc. to hungry people in our world. Please pray for the eradication of hunger and for projects like these to multiply, and for more partnerships to work together to feed the hungry locally and overseas.” (<http://www.cbmin.org/prayerline/>)
