“There will not be found at the last day of account one single soul who can say, “I knocked at mercy's door, but God refused to open it.” There will not stand before the Great White Throne a single soul who can plead, “O Christ, I would have been saved by You, but You would not save me. I gave myself up into Your hands, but You rejected me. I penitently asked You for mercy, but You did not give it.” “Every one that asketh receiveth.” It has been so until this day; it will be so until Christ Himself will come.” - Charles Spurgeon, 1834-1892

“Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father has been pleased to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Provide purses for yourself that will not wear out, a treasure in heaven that will not be exhausted, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.”

– Luke 12:32 – 34
